

Abstract of the Disclosure

A history information obtaining unit obtains information about a use history of an endoscope. An 5 estimating unit makes an estimation of a secular change in the endoscope from its use start until the present time based on this information. A displaying unit displays a ratio of a result of the estimation made by the estimating unit to the degree of the secular change, 10 which is preset for the endoscope.